People Organized for Non-Violent Youth

MISSION STATEMENT

People Organized for Non-Violent Youth is a grass roots organization whose mission is to provide a cohesive community filled with hope, opportunities, promote safety, justice, accountability and healing; and provide life-enhancing programs that build strong character to help youth realize their full potential as responsible citizens and leaders in society.

Goals and Objectives - P.O.N.Y. is a proponent of the CHARACTER COUNTS therapeutic model which advocates the building of strong character traits in youth at an early age. Trustworthiness, Respect, Citizenship, Responsibility, Caring, and Fairness, are those attributes consistent with positive character traits; and should be among those traits instilled in youth today and leaders of tomorrow.
